

Musings...

By John Cutler

□The fellow was so shy that he was afraid to answer the phone. Then the psychiatrist treated him, and now he answers the phone whether it rings or not.

□Daniel Webster, the American orator and statesman when asked why he had not made a 2-hour speech shorter, replied: "I didn't have the time."

□"The most successful politician is he who says what everybody else is thinking and in the loudest voice." Theodore Roosevelt.

□He can travel around the world and back again while the truth is lacing up its boots." Mark Twain.

□Somebody said it: "God made women without a sense of humor so they could love men instead of laughing at them."

□As you grow older you realize what Juvenal meant: "The noiseless foot of time steals swiftly by."

□Richard Wagner taught his parrot to say, "Richard

Wagner, you are a great man." D'Annunzio once returned a letter addressed "To the greatest poet in Italy." "I am not the greatest poet in Italy," he wrote. "I am the greatest poet in the world."

□Oscar Wilde called his admiration for himself "a lifelong devotion." When he landed in New York he said he had nothing to declare but his genius. He regretted his inability to name the hundred best books since he had written only 5."

□"Taste is the mark of an educated man, imagination the sign of a productive man, and emotional balance the token of a mature man." Phillip Youtz said it.

□Somerset Maugham's daily prescription for happiness: "Do something good, see something beautiful and learn 5 new words a day."

Country Crafters Show On Tap

A group of local craftsmen known as the Country Crafters will be holding a show and sale the weekend of Sept. 8 and 9 at the Old Derby Building in Hingham Square.

In its sixth year, the group continues to undergo changes in the crafts represented as new members join and others leave. Along with the usual items available such as stained glass, jewelry, stuffed animals and wooden toys, such unusual items as hand carved and painted birds, Nantucket baskets, Ukrainian pysanky or hand decorated eggs and hand made Chistening gowns will also be represented.

The show will take place from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, and from 12 noon to 5 p.m. on Sunday. The Old Derby Building is located on Main St. on the hill overlooking Loring Theater. For further information, you may call 545-1034. Free admission.
